CUAY DETERMINED.

The Muskogee Paeonix prints the following from its Washington correspondent under date of January 12:

Senator Quay has had several conferences with his republican supporters at his residence in this city, and now he has begun indi-Josh Martin and Edga Graves, vidual Zoonlerences with leading democratic senators, the purpose of his inquiries being to ascertain if a majority of the Senate will go into the scheme of remaining in continuous session until the omnibus bill is disposed of by decisive

> Delegates Hoffman, Hyman and Tangreen, from the Oklahoma City convention, arrived this morning and were at the capitol during the session of the Senate. They did not do any lobbying as the senators are too busy to see any one today; besides, they want other delegates present to work with them for the so-called Nelson

In October, 1893, simost t-n years ago, no vote could be secured on the silver purchase re peal bill until the Senate remained n continuous session three days and nighte. Senator Quay now proposes to resort to the same method of wearing out the majority obstructionists and thus compel a vote.

Present indications are that a majority of the majority senators will consent to that procedure, although that is not yet positively settled. One thing is as sure as Chas Howell and Frank Churchill death and taxes, and that is that Senator Quay is determined to Milton R Gallion, assault to kill. force a vote for the omnibus bill in Handsome Passenger Trains. The Texas Midland Railroad en joys the distinction of posse-sing the nost luxuriously equipped day trains west of the Mississippi, and probably with few equals in any section of the country. The principal trains, consisting of mail, baggage and express Guy P. Cobb, revenue inspector cars, day coaches, reclining chair cars and the Indian police department and cafe cars, are striking models of ngly well arranged and decorated. The full trains barmonize to color and finishing from end .o end, each platnation, owned by non citizene, and form being completely covered with will leave in a day or so for Rush rubber mats and well lighted, form-Springs and Marlow, where the ing an avenue the full length of the collections will continue. Mr. train. The leading color is a pleasing shade of green, inside and out, with rich cathedral glass ventilators and heavy plate class windows. The reclining charts and seats are upholstered to velvet plush and the smoking compartments and toilet bers of the cattlemen's organiza rooms are equipped with leather tion and clients of W. O. Davis, covered high back seats. The in-ide floishing is in flemished oak, with full width french bevel mirrors atteach fighting to tax In each case the and the floors are covered with Wilcattle have been replevined. Their tim carpets, the whole blending into holdings include more than 114, a delicate and attractive shade of 000 head As Minco, north of green. One of the most interesting notice, including numbers of the ling a spring, without the tugging and States, when the cattlemen hope steam couplets and brakes are of the to see the law defeated. automatic slack adjusters and air and absolute safety at high speed. The elegant cafe car service is probably the chief ottraction, food in any quantity and variety being obtainable at all bours at most reasonable prices. The equipment throughout is on a high plane and is thoroughly in keeping with the Midland's reputation as the leading road of the state.
